

OBITUARY.

Lucretia S., wife of Peltiah Shaw, died at her home in this city last Saturday. She was born in Sullivan, Me., June 28, 1835, a daughter of William and Eleanor (Johnson) Robinson, the second child in a family of seven children, and resided in Sullivan until her marriage in 1855 to Peltiah Shaw of Belfast, which has since been her home. She is survived by her husband and seven children—Charles, Mrs. Annie Whitcomb, Wales, Ephraim, Mrs. Etta Bunker, Minnie and Maurice. Mrs. Shaw found her life pleasure in the home circle and always worked industriously for the interest of those dear to her. She was a kind and thoughtful neighbor, was highly regarded in the community where she spent many years and the family deeply feel the loss of one so dear to them. The funeral was at her late home Monday, conducted by Rev. E. S. Philbrook. Mr. J. T. Frost, Capt. James H. Perkins, Henry J. Chapin and Nathaniel Sholes acted as bearers. The floral tributes were beautiful and included the following: Pillow, the husband and family; wreath, Flossie Small; bouquet of chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. George Burton; pinks, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson; pinks, Mr. and Mrs. George Bussey; large floral piece, Mrs. Nathan Pettie, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pettie, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Colson; bouquet, Dr. Thos. Sidelinger; pinks, A. K. Bralley; bouquet, Mrs. Sarah C. Sidelinger; roses, Mrs. A. D. Hayes; bouquets, Mrs. James F. McKee, Donald Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand P. Nason and Miss Olive Bunker; wreath of pansies, Mrs. Ryder.

News of the death of Dr. Oscar S. Erskine, Oct. 8th, was received with deepest sorrow in Wintport and surrounding towns where he was well known in professional and social life. For two years the hopes and prayers of his many friends had been with him in his battle with the dread disease, consumption. Skillful as a physician, earnest in all his efforts, incorruptible, unswerving in his loyalty to his friends, he has been cut down in the prime of life from a career of great usefulness and greater promise, and his loss is deeply felt and mourned. The funeral services were held at the home Oct. 12th, under the direction of Howard Lodge of Masons and was largely attended. Very appropriate and fitting remarks were made by the officiating clergyman, Rev. M. Schneider. The tearful group of friends, many of whom were saying in their heart: "I was sick and he visited me," expressed in the strongest manner the high esteem in which he was held and that his many deeds of kindness and helpful words of courage and good cheer were remembered. The burial was at the Head of the Tide cemetery in Belfast.

Betsy T., wife of S. A. Littlefield of this city, died at her home Thursday, Oct. 13th, aged 64 years and 10 months. She endured with courage and without complaint a long and tedious illness which ended in dropsy. It may be truthfully said of her that she was ever faithful to her trusts as wife and mother. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Carrie A.; four brothers—John of Minnesota, A. C. Clements of Wintport, Thomas of Monroe and Eben C. of Hermon; two sisters, Mrs. Anna White and Mrs. Augusta Whitney of Wintport. Mrs. Littlefield's maiden name was Clements and she was born in Wintport, where the burial took place Sunday.

Capt. William Wells, who died in Sacramento, Calif., Oct. 8th, aged 87 years, 7 months and 6 days, was the oldest of the twelve children of the late Nathaniel and Mary (Clark) Wells. He was born in Gardiner, Me., but spent his boyhood days in Belfast. His father ran the sloop Spy for many years as a packet between Belfast and Eastport and was succeeded in the business by the deceased, who will be remembered by many of our older people. He had been a resident of California about 35 years.

The late Mr. Groeschner had a host of friends, as is proven by the kind words heard on all sides the past week. He was a man who made friends to keep them, and he made a lot of them. He leaves behind a memory that is one of the best things a man can leave when he passes from earth, and but his wife would feel gratified if they could but hear all the warm expressions of friendship for him and his character which have been voiced since the day of his death. —Watertown, Mass., Tribune-Enterprise, October 14th.

The Divorce Question.

By a clerical vote of 31 to 30, and a lay vote of 30 to 25, the amended canon which aimed to prevent the remarriage of divorced persons while husband or wife lived, was defeated Oct. 14th in the house of deputies at the general Episcopal convention in Boston. This means that the issue is dead, so far as the present convention is concerned, and that for three years at least the Episcopal church will sanction the remarriage of innocent parties divorced on the statutory ground.

The house of bishops has yet to pass upon it. If they pass it they would demand a conference with the house of deputies with a view to reconsider. Such an outcome is not anticipated.

Eloped with the Hired Man.

Some weeks ago the wife of E. S. Cummings of Union, so it is alleged, eloped with the hired man, Stephen Pardoe, and it is said that the couple were located at South Thomaston, by the husband. Last Saturday Deputy Sheriff Heald went to Thomaston and arrested Pardoe and brought him to the Rockland jail. Monday he was taken to Union, where a hearing before Trial Justice L. D. Jones.

U. OF M. NEWS.

The annual "peanut scrap" between the Sophomores and Freshmen took place last Thursday night. The Soph's, as they lost the ball game, had to buy the peanuts and deliver them to President Chase, '08, who had half an hour to collect his men after the announcement was given. It was a dark night, and the heavy rain of all day made the walking decidedly uncomfortable, while the place where the scrap occurred, near the Beta Theta Pi house, was decidedly moist. It was noticed that patent leathers or tennis shoes were much in evidence the next morning. The upper class people took a hand—or perhaps two—in the game, and the peanuts and honors seemed to be about evenly divided.

The Lime Business Good.

The October lime business in Knox county is unusually brisk and owing to an excellent market with good prices. The Rockland-Rockport Lime company has 48 kilns afloat and other lime manufacturers are busy also. The total output will not equal the output of last year it is said. The local business was seriously affected last winter by the unusual severity of the weather, totally suspending water shipments for several weeks and in the spring was handicapped by strikes in the building trades. Notwithstanding this the year will prove an average one, however, as the prices of lime are higher than two years ago by several per cent.—Rockland Star.

Mr. Hamilton is deeply beloved by the members of the society here, having some seven years ago labored a five years' pastorate of this society, and is being called to leave then on account of the time limit then in force in the Conference. It is sincerely hoped by the Methodist society, as well as the public generally, that Mr. Hamilton will accept this call and that the Conference will send him here. MAINE GOOD TEMPLARS.

The 47th semi-annual session of the Maine Grand Lodge of Good Templars opened Wednesday morning, Oct. 12th, in the hall of Nelson Dingley lodge, Rockland. A majority of the grand lodge officers were in attendance. At the forenoon session the grand lodge degree was conferred upon 13 candidates. George E. Brackett, grand secretary, reported the present membership amounting to 5000, which is a slight falling off from a year ago. Cumberland county shows an increase in membership. The juvenile temple has 42 members.

Grand Chief Templar Rideout in his annual address praised the stand taken by Gov. E. C. Loring in his regard to the enforcement and urged the Good Templars to lend all the assistance in their power.

"Our enemy is still the same relentless monster," said Mr. Rideout, "still crying out that prohibition does not prohibit, and at the same time trying to destroy our prohibitory law. In our State election we saw temperance men turned out and friends of the enemy installed in their stead, simply because those opposed to enforcement of law worked hardest to attain their end. Had the Christian church, and those in favor of righteousness, displayed the same zeal and earnestness in the cause the result would have been different."

Frank W. Gowen, chairman of the legislative committee on temperance, spoke upon the resubmission issue. He professed to have information from Augusta that some of the politicians desire resubmission. "Now the issue before us," said he, "is whether a few wholesale dealers in Massachusetts, and a few of our politicians and rumrunners run this State, or whether the sober, industrious people run it. To prohibit out of our constitution would be one of the greatest calamities that could possibly befall the State. When the law is once removed it will be hard to replace it, as Vermont is finding to her sorrow."

It was voted to unite with the Maine civil league, the W. C. T. U. and other temperance bodies in the matter of securing legislation.

Frank W. Gowen of Waterville, Rev. A. S. Bisbee of Brunswick and J. L. Leavitt were appointed a committee to represent the grand lodge of Good Templars.

Congressman Littlefield made a brief address. He spoke of resubmission as an idle proposition. At the closing session Thursday resolutions were adopted endorsing the work of the Maine Civil League and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The latter resolve was the cause of a lively discussion in which it appeared that the Good Templars are by no means pleased at the manner in which they have been totally ignored by the W. C. T. U., as they claim. Congress was Littlefield's last address for his interest in the order and his address. Bangor was selected as the place of the annual session next April. The grand officers and delegates visited the State Prison at Thomaston at the close of the session.

THE AFFAIRS OF JOHN F. LIBBY.

What a Rockland Man Says of Him. John F. Libby, Prospect's town treasurer, who disappeared September 26, and whose financial affairs are badly involved, extending, it is said, to nearly $20,000, is indebted to a well known Rockland firm to the extent of $300. Said the senior member of the firm last week to a representative of the Daily Star:

"So 'Uncle' John's gone, I see. I knew him well, as he was an old customer of our firm. On September 26, the very day he disappeared from Prospect, I called up his store wishing to speak with him concerning some business. Courteously he asked me to wait, and I received an evasive answer, for they all would tell me just where 'Uncle' John was any hour of the day. I became suspicious and when his store was attached last Saturday I knew that 'Uncle' John was in serious trouble for he had always been prompt in payments till the last year or so. This morning I called up Prospect and finally got into communication with Attorney Dunton of Belfast, who is attorney for the Searsmont National bank, a creditor. I inquired of him the extent of my debt. In one of Belfast's banks there are only overdrafts, I believe. The Searsmont bank people are trying to locate 'Uncle' John. He is about 70 years old and has always been a highly respected in the community most likely he has lived since his birth."

Maine Teachers' Association.

The Maine Teachers' Association will hold its annual meeting at Bangor, Oct. 27, 28 and 29. Dr. Bliss Perry, Prin. E. H. Russell, Dr. Jane E. Robbins, Dr. Henry Houck and many other bright men and women will address the meetings.

Attractive and inspiring programmes covering every department of school work have been prepared; and there will be separate conferences for kindergarten, primary, grammar and high school teachers, Sunday school and college instructors, as well as for superintendents. Every teacher should remember that since there are to be no county meetings this year, the Bangor convention is the only opportunity to meet socially any considerable number of educational workers. The hotels and railroads have offered such reduced rates that a large attendance is easily possible.

The officers of the association are: President, W. E. Russell, Gorham; vice president, Prescott Keyes, Bangor; secretary and treasurer, J. F. Ryan, Calais; corresponding secretary, M. Grace Fickett, Gorham; executive committee, W. E. Russell, Prescott Keyes, J. F. Ryan, M. Grace Fickett, D. W. Colby of Skowhegan.

OF NEW YORK.FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS, OF INDIANA."Love-Deering" is the caption of a wedding notice in an exchange. Let hope so.Bryan still insists that he is for Parker, but there is an increasing conviction that he is for Bryan.Big grain crops at home and a shortage in foreign countries ensures an other prosperous year to our agriculturalists.S. A. D. Smith will probably be sadder when he sees by the election returns that the plurality of Congressman Powers was 8,901.We cannot believe all that we hear from the war in the East, but when Russia admits defeat it is safe to conclude that the Japs have won a victory.Figures never lie unless liars make figures" is the motto of a new book by Edward Atkinson. One would naturally enquire, is the author always ver-acious?There are many enquiries as to the exact date of Indian summer. There isn't any. Whenever we have a pleasant day in the late autumn it is Indian summer.Murphy, the Tammany Hall leader, says the Republicans are doing too much challenging in the New York registration. Naturally. But the tricks of Tammany are well known.The Democratic proposition to carry Indiana by a whirlwind campaign, with Bryan to furnish the wind, does not strike the Boston Herald favorably.
What has Henry Voluminous Nelson to say about it?The oldest negro minstrel is dead, but his jokes are immortal.—Boston Trotter.The first statement is incorrect. As long as negro minstrels exist the oldest is still living.A rumor reached this State quite recently that Oct. 8th was observed as Maine Day at the St. Louis Exposition.
If it had not been kept such a profound secret there might have been some Maine people present.The investigation of the steamer Siccom disaster has resulted in the censure and discharge of the New York steamboat inspectors. They got off cheap, considering the many deaths due, in part at least, to their dereliction of duty.The Bridgton News does not approve of bestowing upon Senator Frye the title of "grand old man" of the Senate.
It says: "Bill Frye" is the term by which he has so long been known he'll be nothing else—to his intimate friends at least—while he lives.The purchase by the Maine Central of the steamboat wharf at Bucksport evidently means something. It may be a rival deep water outlet to that projected by the B. & A. at Cape Jellison or be designed to take the place of that enterprise. Certainly both roads require better facilities than they have now for handling their rapidly increasing business.Bryan's "whirlwind campaign" in Indiana recalls an incident of life in San Antonio, Texas, in ante bellum days. The mistress of a well known boarding house had a little colored boy stand beside her chair and fan her during meals. He would begin vigorously, then turn the fan to himself and go to sleep as he stood, requiring a vigorous shake to bring him to a sense of his duty. Bryan began his campaign in Indiana with a vigorous speech in behalf of Parker; but in succeeding speeches he fanned Bryan. It is now in report to the National Democratic committee to shake him.It appears that the Maine State Fair Association is $20,000 in debt, on which it is paying 6 per cent. interest, and that the receipts this year were about $1,500 less than the expenses. But for the unfavorable weather on the closing days it is thought that the fair might have made expenses; as it was, the debt has been increased to $21,500. The Government and Council were asked to turn over to the Association the $1,750 appropriated for the Bangor fair, in addition to its own appropriation of $2, 000. Governor Hill and the members of the council, however, did not feel that they had the authority to do this, and could only recommend that the Lewiston management come before the next Legislature with its request. This will doubtless be done.The New England Homestead says that a ten pound tub of butter and two parcels of creamery prints constituted the sole dairy display at the Northampton, Mass., fair; while there were "exactly 26 cheap fakirs, side shows and gambling devices." Naturally the Homestead demands a reform. Then the Damariscotta Herald says of the local fair that "as managed at present it is a shame to the Society and a disgrace to the County"; but says that the generalagent "is in no way responsible for the disgraceful scenes which occur there and for the admission of rumsellers under the thin disguise of 'fakirs'; and concludes with saying: "We doubt if the Society could legally claim State aid at any time within the past few years." Evidently reform is needed here as well as in Northampton—and perhaps elsewhere.The Presque Isle Star-Herald says that "the Bangor & Aroostook railroad seems to be assured of having in the year to come one of the busiest and most prosperous years in its history." There is estimated to be at least twenty-five per cent. more potatoes in Aroostook county at the present time than ever before at this season of the year—the yield in many cases is unprecedented and the crop free from shrinkage caused by rot or any considerable percentage of small potatoes—and nearly the entire crop will be shipped over the B. & A. There is also a large crop of hay to be shipped, and the lumber business continues good, and with the increased facilities for manufacturing which have been established during the past year there will be a large increase in the shipment of lumber products. It is entirely safe to predict that the already large shipments from the Garden of Maine will be greatly increased in the near future. Much of the virgin soil remains to be tilled, vast forests are untouched by the lumberman's ax, and the number of manufacturing plants must greatly increase. The necessity for a deep water outlet for the B. & A. becomes increasingly evident, and those in a position to know predict that the road will be built to Cape Jellison at no distant day.

R. Robbins.Willis E. Hamilton has the French roof up and shingled on his new office building at the corner of Cedar and Franklin streets.
The building is 30x30 feet, and has a basement 6 feet deep in the clear. The heating apparatus for the office and the two greenhouses, each 20x50 feet, will be in the basement. Mr. Hamilton intends to build another greenhouse for general plants on his Congress street lot, in addition to the two already built there for roses and pinks.Mrs. Will Cates, who for many years was connected with the clothing business in this city, reports a very successful season. Since giving up the factory on Main street she has continued manufacturing at her home on High street, giving employment to about 30 hands. At present the garments consist mostly of bath robes and smoking coats.
After Jan. 1st there will be a run of about three months on fancy vests. Mrs. Cates not only works for Boston parties, but does custom work for our towns people. Her shipments of last week for Boston was between 300 and 400 garments.In 1902 Dean & Pooler bought a large tract of land adjoining Fort Knox in the town of Prospect. On this property a fine clear mineral spring was found and the water is now transported to Bangor by means of a gasoline launch. Charles C.
Homer is now engaged in rebuilding a wind mill that was located on this spring, for the purpose of pumping water to a house where Mr. Pooler proposes to aerate or charge it and put it on the market, bottled and flavored. He has also bought a gasoline engine to furnish power and will immediately begin operations.NORTH BELFAST. Superintendent Albert Lane is making improvements on the cemetery under the supervision of trustee W. S. Hatch. The avenues of the new section have been ploughed and the dirt used to grade the embankment which slopes toward the road. It adds very much to the good appearance of the yard....Mrs.
George F. Briar, who has been visiting friends in Boston and vicinity, arrived home last Saturday....Ralph Russ and Herman Beckwith have gone to Brattleboro, Vt., where they have employment.
....Word was received Saturday that Frank Woods, formerly of this place, but now in Kittery, has had both legs broken by the collapse of a staging upon which he was at work.MIND-READING AND HYPNOTISM. Pauline, the mind-reader and hypnotist, entertained large audiences at the Opera House the first of the week and will continue the remainder of this week. He is good as a hypnotist, but is excellent as telepathist.
The brief talk that introduces the tests is interesting and the amusing features of the hypnotic influences, combined with the mystery of mind over matter, make a good combination. Pauline stated that he had permanently cured in Burlington, Vt., a man who had been afflicted with stuttering about 20 years. The tests of locating articles and persons were certainly well performed and the acts and appearances of the local subjects under hypnotic influence were very amusing. The blackboard writing from mind transmission was new to most of the audience.THE WALDO TRUST COMPANY. It will be noticed in another column that the Peoples National Bank of this city is to be liquidated, and a few words of explanation seem necessary. The above bank will be succeeded by the Waldo Trust Company of Belfast, they taking over the banking house books, notes, all depositors' accounts, both savings and current, and in the savings department, so that the transfer will not interrupt business or inconvenience in any way the patrons of the present bank. This change is made, because under the laws of the State it has been proven that a trust company offers additional security and advantages, both to stockholders and depositors, and enlarges the range of business. This trust company, which will open for business November 1, 1904, will be a local organization, governed by a residential board of managers who have experience in banking and financial affairs.
Many applications have already been held in Belfast.There will be a dance at Silver Harvest noon and evening. The admission to the Church. Light refreshments will be served.The steamers Golden Rod and Merry-cove had good passenger lists on the up-river trip Monday afternoon, mainly Rebekahs and Odd Fellows en route to Bangor to attend the meetings of the Grand Lodges.A steam pump and boiler arrived at Bucksport last week and were taken to Mosquito mountain in the town of Frankfort, where it is reported a dam is to be built to hold back the water that runs down the mountain and utilize it to run a dynamo for electricity in cutting some kinds of stone.SHIPPING ITEMS. Sch. Flora Condon, new features in the new millinery and all our milliners visit the Boston and New York openings and bring home the new forms and shades. All the openings were on Saturday last, and it was an ideal fall day. The windows were as usual very attractively arranged. Mrs. H. B. Cunningham displayed a very handsome black picture hat, one in mahogany velvet and chenille and another in green. Mrs. R. P. Chase had a simple but elegant black hat with two ostrich feathers arranged to show the quills; one in white, and two beauties in terra cotta and blue. Mrs. B. F. Wells had her millinery parlor over Carle & Jones store very attractively arranged. Here were seen a large white beaver with six different colors used in the velvet and feathers, a very handsome red hat, and another in blue.

The Misses Ellis used their fine new display window, the largest in the city, for the first time. It was trimmed in dark green burlap which set off their new goods to advantage. A medium sized hat in reseda green was greatly admired. It was made of velvet, and the only ornamentation was a double breast of feathers which blended beautifully with the hat and the whole was covered with Maline lace to match. A large and beautiful black picture hat was conspicuous in the window. Miss Louise H.
Ferguson's show window displayed an elegant black hat to which the sold tag was attached early in the morning. One of the newest creations of the season was displayed here in a medium sized hat of silk beaver in brown and green, the only trimming was velvet buttons and a fancy feather ornament to match. In all the stores were to be seen the new chenilles, beavers, pompons, dahlia, bird of Paradise feathers, the high crowned, the art nouveau buckles, the coq de rochers and the new bright velvets with flowers and feathers to match. The new fad of the different shades of yellow and brown have revived the autumn leaves as a garment and they are always pretty.
There never was a wider range of shapes and colors to choose from and all tastes may be gratified and still remain within the limits of this season's styles.PHYSICIAN'S GOOD LUCK.
Dr. Hart's Fortunate Experience of Special Interest to Many in Belfast.
The happiest man in New England to-day and one who is receiving congratulations from his friends, is Dr. Philip Z. Hart of Laconia, N. H.
Probably no physician is better known in all parts of the United States than Dr.
Hart, as he has been a great traveler and knows the best people wherever he has been. For years he has suffered with catarrh in its worst form.
Although he resorted to the latest scientific treatment, and consulted many of his brother physicians, Dr. Hart finally said, "I might just as well have thrown my money in the river, for I grew worse and worse. It is really due to my wife's good judgment that I tried Hyomei." The Doctor, in his emphatic way, added, "Thank God that I did, for Hyomei cured me completely. My wife and I will swear that Hyomei cured me of the worst case of catarrh that ever existed. I used to cough constantly at night, and had a dropping in the throat, which kept me awake a great deal. I raised thick phlegm and was in a horrible condition. However, I am entirely cured, solely through the use of Hyomei." Dr. Hart is a man of great energy and of high standing in the medical department, the famous treatment which cures catarrh without stomach dosing. A complete outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, 50c. He sells, under guarantee, to refund the money if it does not give quick relief. Ask him to show you the strong guarantee under which it is sold.A Guaranteed Cure For Piles.

Never a sadder message fell upon human hearts than that which came over the wires a few weeks ago announcing the sudden death of Mr. Joseph E. Cook of Portland, a native of this town, traveling engineer of the Maine Central, and who was one of the victims of the recent railroad accident in Lewiston. Only through blinding tears could the numerous friends of the deceased, many of them, find relief. "This home-going must be an irreparable loss to a great many lives, not only in the home and family circle but to every one who knew him, as he had hosts of friends wherever he went, and he was a friend to all." Friends were brought here in a special car, accompanied by a Masonic delegation, mourning relatives and friends. Upon arrival nearly all of the friends of the deceased in the West lodge, F. and A. M., met and escorted the body to the Friends church, where a prayer was offered by Prof. George Jones of Etna, and a eulogy was read by Rev. Mr. Webb, after which the order performed its funeral service. Then he was laid to rest in the Friends cemetery beside his kindred and amid the associations of home and friends of early days. A MAINE SONG WRITER.

A song writer of Maine who is achieving a prominence among the educators and American composers of high rank is Anna Colson Rich of Bangor. As a composer Mrs. Rich enjoys a marked success. She began the study of music at the age of 4 years and soon evinced a remarkable talent for composing, writing several pieces of instrumental music and a few songs at a very early age. She now has to her credit 172 compositions, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, some of which were written and arranged for an orchestra. Mrs. Rich is preeminently an anthem writer. About seventy-five of her compositions have been issued by the publishers of the western States and several have appeared in the Boston press. Many of the numbers have proved to be prime favorites with professional musicians. Her music is distinguished for its piquancy of rhythm and genuine musical originality and freshness. Some of her best efforts are several songs and quartettes arranged for male voices, and these were received with praise by the publishers of London. Mrs. Rich (nee Anna E. Colson), was born in Verona, Maine, and the early part of her life was passed in Wintertown. For many years she resided in Boston, and while there received musical instruction from some of the renowned teachers, including Eben H. Bailey, the well known composer of that city. She has been a diligent worker and is noted as a musician who has found American tuition sufficient to attain success without rushing abroad for a musical education.

The Georges Valley Railroad.

Union people are again uneasy about the Georges Valley Railroad in which they are so vitally interested, having a large bunch of money invested in it and this line being their only rail communication with the world. The road was chartered some time ago, but the company was not paying interest on its bonds when due and there were open charges that the road was poorly managed. It was supposed that at the annual meeting, which the by-laws require to be held on the first Tuesday in October, our people might learn the real condition of affairs, and perhaps a change of management might be brought about. But the time has come and gone and no meeting has been held, and none called, so far as the public know.—Rockland Opinion.

Facial Massage.

IN MY FACIAL WORK I use a medicated pad for steaming the face, and a cream for massaging that is composed of the purest ingredients. It has a beautifying and cleansing effect. It not only crases the lines but heals the skin and removes from the pores the impurities that accumulate and make the skin rough and unwholesome. It has no equal for softening, cleansing and nourishing the skin and developing the tissues when properly massaged.

Superfluous Hair.

I have at last found a harmless liquid for the removal of superfluous hair from the face. It not only removes the hair perfectly clean in five minutes, but will, if applied every third day, remove the hair permanently. It depends on the strength of the hair, the length of time it will take to entirely destroy it. It contains no caustic, acid or poisonous substance. Will not leave a scar or cause injury in any way. It is sold to me under a written guarantee to accomplish all that is claimed of it. It is made by parties with whom I am personally acquainted and have perfect confidence in. For further particulars call upon or write to:

READ ALL THIS.

You Never Know the Moment When This Information May Prove of Infinite Value.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Belfast to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. Know that Dr. Don's Ointment is a positive remedy for all fullness of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

L. C. Putnam of Seasport avenue, shore road, says: "I had itching piles for twelve years and I doctored more or less with every doctor in town and used no end of salves and ointments, but they did me little or no good. I saw Don's Ointment advertised and I got a box at Edmund Wilson's drug store. I got more relief from it than anything I ever tried. It is without exception the best ointment for what it is advertised that I ever used."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.
